Abigail Evans concentrates her practice on a wide range of real estate matters, with a focus on acquisitions, dispositions, commercial leasing, and financing.

Abigail previously served as a summer associate at Blank Rome, a law clerk at the United States Attorney's Office for the District of Delaware, and a research assistant.

During law school, Abigail was a member of the Women's Law Caucus and Student Ambassador Program. She served as managing editor of operations of the Villanova Law Review and as a teaching assistant for first year legal writing. Abigail was also awarded the 2022 AAML Eric D. Turner Award in recognition of her performance in Family Law.

Outside The Firm

Abigail enjoys exploring local restaurants and cafés, walking her dog along the Manayunk Towpath, and rooting for Philadelphia sports teams.
